Oklahoma Municipal League Hosts District Dinner Meetings in Oklahoma City and Altus

(November 26, 2017) – The Oklahoma Municipal League will host District Dinner Meetings in Oklahoma City at Cattlemen’s Steakhouse Tuesday, November 28 and in Altus at Fred’s Steakhouse on Thursday, November 30th. Over 125 municipal professionals will attend the two events.

The District Dinner Meetings are an opportunity for municipal officials to connect with other municipalities in the district and hear about the upcoming 2018 legislative session as well as the latest League happenings. Attendees will have an opportunity to hear from the new Oklahoma Municipal League Executive Director Mike Fina and discuss municipal issues happening around the state.

Fina said, “District meetings are an important tool for the OML team to reach out to Oklahoma communities. I am excited that during my first year as director we are increasing the number of these events to cover more areas of the state. Because we are a statewide organization it is critical that we visit as many municipalities as possible every year.”

For more information on these events, please contact Sarah Lingenfelter at 405-528-7515 or sarah@oml.org.

About Oklahoma Municipal League

The mission of the OML is to provide services and programs for municipal officials to assist them in better serving their citizens, and to act as the representative of Oklahoma municipalities in interactions requiring a united voice. Since 1913, the League has served as the individual and collective voice of local officials on the state and national level.
