The Oklahoma Municipal League Is Teaming Up with the University of Oklahoma Institute for Quality Communities

(February 8, 2017) The Oklahoma Municipal League (OML) is proud to announce a new and exciting partnership with the University of Oklahoma Institute for Quality Communities (IQC). IQC and OML are hosting a full day workshop to be held on the Norman Campus on March 10th for city officials.

The workshop will focus on placemaking; evaluating and improving public spaces. Placemaking is a process of creating quality public spaces based on local assets, culture, and preferences. It is deeply rooted in participation from community members who are knowledgeable about a community's streets, parks, and plazas. This workshop will demonstrate the connection between placemaking and community development goals, share success stories from Oklahoma communities, and show how to evaluate public spaces.

Officials from around the state will gather to hear from experts in the field as well as city officials from Enid, Midwest City, Oklahoma City and Norman that have been successful with placemaking in their own communities.

For further details, contact Nancee Morris at nancee@oml.org or call 405-528-7515.
