MOORELAND MAYOR APPOINTED TO OKLAHOMA MUNICIPAL LEAGUE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(March 22, 2016) Mooreland Mayor Todd Finley was appointed to the Oklahoma Municipal League (OML) Board of Directors during their March 2nd meeting to be the District Towns West representative.

Asked about his election to the Board, Finley said “I find it exciting to collectively discuss issues and ideas with other municipal leaders from across the State. I look forward to representing the needs and concerns of other small towns in my District as a Board member of this distinguished organization, and ultimately strive to make a difference for all Oklahomans.”

Mayor Finley graduated high school in Austin, Texas then attended Schreiner University in Kerrville, Texas. After college Finley proudly served in the United States Army and the Oklahoma Army National Guard. After service to his country, he has served in Oklahoma government for over twenty years in various capacities. His longstanding career in municipal government started as a police officer for the City of Alva. He is currently the Assistant to the Fire Chief and Fire Marshall for Woodward, and Mayor for the Town of Mooreland. Mayor Finley is a graduate of the Citizens Academy of Leadership Training Class II, OML Certified Municipal Official, Leadership Woodward Graduate, and U.S. Army “Iron Mike” recipient.

Mayor Finley and his wife, Jennifer, have four daughters, three son-in-laws and seven grandchildren. They are active in the United Methodist Church of Mooreland.

The Oklahoma Municipal League is a statewide, non-profit corporation currently composed of 473 member cities and towns. The League serves as a spokesperson for municipalities at state and federal government levels to achieve local objectives. By working together through the League, municipal officials formulate programs and unite in concerted action benefiting their communities.
